

HSC believes in providing superior legal services in a small firm environment. We pride ourselves on our accessibility, extensive experience and personalized representation. If you have a client who could benefit from our services, we welcome and appreciate your referral. We value and respect the relationship you have with your client. You can be assured that we will handle your client's case with care, and, once it is complete, we will return the client to you. Referral fees may be available and will be considered/negotiated on a case-by-case basis.
